MarketNet Names Jennifer Jurgens Vice President of Client Services

SPRING LAKE, Mich. — May, 2006 — MarketNet Services, LLC today announced the promotion of Jennifer Jurgens to vice president of client services. This is a new position at MarketNet, created to manage the growth of the client base and an expanding team of account executives. The company's strong commitment to customer service is also driving this expansion.

"Strong relationship-building skills and a focus on customer satisfaction are crucial to our success," said JT McDonald, president. "This promotion recognizes Jennifer's dedication to these principals and her ability to help us grow during the past few years. Her team will enable MarketNet to continue our pace of growth and innovation in the Sales Lead Management and Customer Relationship Management (CRM) sectors."

Jennifer joined MarketNet in 2003 and has served as an account executive for Konica Minolta Business Solutions U.S.A., The HON Company and others. She will be responsible for the overall management of MarketNet's clients and corporate marketing while contributing to the future direction of the company through development of strategic product and service offerings.
